CVCC OFFERS FREE PARENT SEMINAR ON “Sexting...Texting...Posting...Chatting”

Cuyahoga Valley Career Center (CVCC) will offer a free seminar for parents titled “Think...Before You Click” on Thursday, February 16, 2012, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m. The seminar will be of special interest to parents of middle school and high school age students.

Rick Mann, attorney and author, tailors his presentation to inform parents of the unintended consequences of their children’s actions in the cyber world. The various topics discussed include teen attitudes, actions, legal and criminal consequences, and privacy when using social networks, including chat rooms, cyber cheating, cyber bullying, sexting and sextortion. Mann will also share information designed to assist parents with practical responses to these issues. A Q&A session will follow the presentation.

This seminar is presented by CVCC, 25 & Alive/City of Independence, and Community Awareness & Prevention Association (CAPA). The seminar is free, but registration is requested. Visit www.cvccworks.com or call 440-746-8233 to register. CVCC is located at 8001 Brecksville Road, Brecksville, OH 44141. The school driveway is across from Wallings Road on Brecksville Road/Rt.21.
